JAC Recruitment continues to expand USA presence with opening of New York office

---

JAC Recruitment Co., Ltd (TSE:2124), a leading global recruitment consultancy with operations in 11 countries, announced the opening of its latest office in New York on 5th, January 2024. It is the third JAC location in the USA, following the establishment of its country head office in Los Angeles, California at the beginning of 2023 and the subsequent opening of VantagePoint Executive Search in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Hiromi Tazaki, Chairman and CEO of JAC, said: "Last year, we made inroads into the US, and our successful track record in Los Angeles and Charlotte has already given us a solid foothold in this strategic market so a decision was made to open our third operation in New York, the leading economic city in the USA, where many of our existing and potential clients operate. We will continue to provide high-quality recruitment services to companies in our target sectors by leveraging our specialist knowledge and global network".

Adil Driouech, Managing Director of JAC Recruitment International, the holding company responsible for the company's international operations, also commented: "New York is a major financial hub, home to the New York Stock Exchange and the headquarters of some of the world's leading financial institutions. Its large market is supported by the financial, consulting and IT industries, which we believe is a market for the high-skilled talent we focus on".

Kenji Minami, President of JAC Recruitment (US), Inc. added: "We are very pleased to open our third location in the USA , and to be able to provide more substantial support to the many Japanese and multinational companies operating in the country. We will continue to utilise our strengths as a group while also working closely with our VantagePoint brand, which excels in the placement of executive personnel from consulting firms and financial institutions".

JAC Recruitment will continue to leverage off its global network to expand its business by establishing new domestic and international offices, and to develop highly specialised recruitment services based on its industry-specific teams and in-depth understanding of the market, while also supporting the growth of its clients' businesses.
