JAC Recruitment strengthens European presence with Amsterdam office opening in the Netherlands

JAC Recruitment Co., Ltd (TSE:2124), a leading global recruitment consultancy, pleased to announce the opening of its latest office in Amsterdam, the capital of the Netherlands on Wednesday, 1st April 2026 (local time).

Hiromi Tazaki, Chairman and CEO of the Company, said, "The company which originated in the UK in 1975, and has been operating businesses both in the UK and Germany, is very pleased to extend our business into the Netherlands. The Netherlands, often referred as the 'gateway to Europe', and a hub on the European continent, is an ideal location for us to set up operations. Our mission is to support companies by providing the best talent for their business success in Europe, even amid changing social and economic conditions, based on our success in the European market. "

Kengo Atsumi, Managing Director of JAC Recruitment UK, who is now appointed Managing Director of JAC Recruitment Netherlands in dual roles said that we have been supporting businesses in Netherlands from our UK office. However, demand for high-quality talent in the Netherlands has increased significantly these days, as the Netherlands will remain a prominent European hub, attracting a diverse array of expanding businesses, requirement of specialists anticipated to rise more. By establishing an office in the Netherlands with our 50 year's recruitment experience in the UK and Europe, we will gain deeper market in sight and able to provide more efficient services throughout.

JAC Recruitment will continue to leverage its global network to expand its business by establishing international offices, and providing highly specialised talent through an in-depth understanding of the market, while also supporting the growth of its clients' businesses worldwide.
